ABOUT THE STATE

The Danville Baptist association at its recent annual meeting in Passumpsic elected the following officers: Moderator the Rev. J. J. Williams, of Newport; clerk and treasurer, the Rev. F. S. Talman, of St. Johnsbury; historian, C. H. Woods, of St. Johnsbury.

Chauncey A. Adams, who has resigned the secretaryship of the St. Johnsbury Young Men's Christian association after two years' service, will be succeeded July 1 by C. A. Palmer, the present physical director. Mr. Adams who has been in the association work six years in Montreal and the island of Ceylon, goes to another position.

The second "Red tag day" for the benefit of the Brattleboro rest room, the only association of its kind in the state, was held Saturday and nearly 3,000 tags were sold. The exact amount collected is not known but it will exceed last year's proceeds which were $700. The solicitors were mainly members of the Woman's club and girls from the high school.

Dr. Jacob Ross, a graduate of the medical department of the university of Vermont at Burlington, in the class of 1908, and Miss Elizabeth Holmes were married Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, in Charlotte. Doctor and Mrs. Ross will leave next September for Peking, China, where Doctor Ross is under appointment as instructor in the medical department of the Union Christian college.

Judge Charles H. Robb and family, of Bellows Falls, have left Washington for their cottage at Falmouth, Mass. Judge Robb's court in the District of Columbia was adjourned until next October, giving him a much longer vacation than usual. His health is much better now than a year ago, although his duties on the bench have been much harder the past year than formerly.

There is a prospect that the Jersey which for a long time has been the popular cow all through Cheltona county and that section of the state, will be supplanted. At the end of last week Sullivan Bros. one of the largest firms of horse and cattle dealers thereabouts, had shipped to Chicago dealers twenty-two carloads of Jersey cattle to be sold in the West. The cars will be shipped back with larger stock, Durhams and Holsteins, with which the farmers of that section will experiment.

JOSEPH G. CONVERSE.

Was One of the Best Known Citizens of Moretown.

Joseph G. Converse, aged 78 years, died Monday afternoon at his home in Moretown. He has always been in good health until recent years, when he has been breaking down. He was born in Randolph, Feb. 15, 1831, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Converse and a nephew of the late ex-Gov. Converse of Woodstock. He went to Montpelier in early life and after a few years there went to Moretown, where for 60 years he has passed his life, 54 years of which he was on the place where he died. He owned one of the largest farms in the vicinity, having a fine set of buildings, and kept a nice herd of cattle. He has been a most successful farmer and was selectman at different times, as well as holding other offices.

He was twice married. His first wife, who died, was Mary Hatch of Randolph. Two children were born to them, Julius A. Converse and Jennie M. Converse, the latter of whom died in 1902. The second wife was Mary Cobb Richmond of Woodstock. He was married to her 41 years ago June 30, next. Four children were born by this marriage. They are Charles L. Nina P. and Florence M., all of Barre, and Edward Converse of Moretown, who lived at home. The funeral will be held from his late home at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. Edward Wright of Montpelier will officiate. The interment will be in the Green Mount cemetery.

Total $15,539,039.
In 1908 the total amount of real and personal estate, including polls, for taxation was $15,152,616, as follows: Real estate $10,921,090; Personal estate $3,524,317; 5,011 polls $1,007,209.

"Doctors of the Masses"

is what one writer has termed propi-etary medicines.

Good, honest proprietary medicines like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound succeed, and the homes of the masses are blessed by them, while those which are worthless or harmful soon drop out. Thirty years of success in curing female ills is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Power of The Stage.

When the stage manager dared intimate to the leading lady that nobody in real life walked the way she was walking, he met with the scorn his impudence merited.

"The mission of the stage," exclaimed the artist with fine feeling, "is educational. Wait until I've toured the provinces about once, and everybody will be walking that way."—Puck.

Trouble Makers Unstated.

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his dyspepsia and indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves, healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right. 25c at Red Cross Pharmacy.

The cement particles left on the screen after screening through a sieve of 40,000 meshes to the square inch are little better than sand in cementing quality. Edison Portland Cement is

GIRL WILD IN WOODS.

Escaped From Hospital and Is Caught After Long Search.

Greenwich, Conn., June 16.—After wandering about the village in her night gown, barefooted and half crazed, for a large part of the night, Alla Cazer, a 19-year-old girl of Byron Shore, was found at 2 o'clock yesterday morning by William Dewey on the estate of E. M. Blake of New York, hiding under a tree and shivering with alarm at an approaching thunderstorm. Mr. Dewey summoned help and, with three other men, carried the girl to the Greenwich hospital, from which she had made her escape at 9 o'clock last night by jumping out of a bathroom window. Much secrecy was observed at first by the hospital authorities, and few knew that crazy folk were admitted to the hospital. Finally the case was reported to the police and hundreds joined in the search.

Dr. Fitz Hyde was among the leaders in the search, using his automobile, and he ordered all the nurses to refuse any information. The Cazer girl has been literally starving herself to death for six months because of a hallucination that she was growing too tall. She walked in a stooping position and ate only small amounts of food. Hence she was taken to the hospital.

While the girl was at large she scared many persons, who mistook her for a ghost. When she was found she was about a half mile from the hospital. The hospital authorities did not know of the girl's escape until fifteen minutes afterward. When Mrs. John McNeill notified them that her little son, Allen, had seen the girl jump out of the hospital window and then run over the hill toward Union cemetery.

Common Sense Out of Doors.

The first thing for you to do is to look upon the outdoors as a new country. The next thing is to step outside the house onto the porch. Another step takes you to the garden or to the walk. The latter leads perhaps to a city park, or to the river bank, or to the beach, to the mountain, or to the wooded fields. And only to go out on your porch or over into the woods and quietly rest, outdoors is in itself a real outdoor life. It is the simplest form of outdoor living. Do that if you can do nothing more, and do it as regularly as possible. If you have a horse or an automobile or a boat your possibilities widen. Your inclination, controlled by common sense, will dictate to you what sports to take up. I strongly advocate the neighborhood club for outdoor life. A general club, not a tennis or a golf or a boat club. A club that can be the headquarters for all the outdoor doings of your crowd by land or water. You do not need to be chained to it, but you will find such a club a great help. For one thing, the club can obtain equipment sufficient for all to use by turns at considerable saving of cost, though the wise man will provide himself with what outdoor apparatus he can afford. It is money well invested. The club can arrange regattas and field days and various tournaments. It can arrange for camps, permanent summer camps where members go for their respective vacations, and in many ways be a factor not to be ignored.

They're calling—don't you hear 'em? They're calling 'loud and clear; They're calling 'low and softlike, Still a callin'—can't ye hear? An' they're sayin' in the swavin' Of the trees, "Oh, come out here Where the sun is softly kissin' Of the brook, an' nohow missin' Daffodils and modest violets— Oh, won't you come an' look?"

—Wm. B. Ashley in the May Circle Magazine.
